Remember, answer every item!

The Second-Year Student Assessment™ is part of a carefully designed program that helps your institution determine how to assist you with your educational program and goals. The assessment you are about to complete will generate a report for your advisor or individuals from the student service offices about your needs and interests in specific areas.

You are strongly encouraged to take advantage of the follow-up activities and opportunities provided by your institution.

The assessment has multiple sections, each with its own set of instructions.

Answer every item.

By completing and submitting this online assessment, you give consent to its release to Noel-Levitz for the purpose of scoring, processing and report preparation.
