

Small Group Analysis of Reports

Please divide into groups. Using one of the sample reports, please answer these questions. Prepare to share your responses with your colleagues.

- What are the student's major strengths?

- What are the barriers that the student must overcome to be successful?

- What areas should be discussed with the student?

- What cautions would you exercise in interviewing the student?

- What recommendations would you make to the student?

Prepare to share your responses with colleagues.