Remember, answer every item!

The Mid-Year Student Assessment™ is part of a carefully designed program that helps your institution determine how to assist you with your educational program and goals. The assessment you are about to complete will generate a report about your needs and interests in specific areas for you, your advisor, or individuals from the student service offices.

While completing the assessment and participating in the follow-up activities are voluntary, you are strongly encouraged to take advantage of these opportunities.

The assessment has multiple sections, each with its own set of instructions. Complete each part as accurately as you can.

By completing and submitting this online assessment, you give consent to its release to Noel-Levitz for the purpose of scoring, processing and report preparation.
